

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Policy Statement

UNIVERSAL GROUP views corporate social responsibility (CSR) as an umbrella term covering our impact on society and the environment in its widest sense; our impact on the environment; our diversity record; our behaviour as an employer, as a purchaser of goods and services, and as a provider of recruitment services; the suppliers we use; our corporate governance policies; our relationships with our stakeholders; and the shared values that guide our company.

We are committed to being a responsible business because it matters to us and the people who are important to us – particularly the people who work here. We also believe that improving our understanding and delivery of our social and environmental responsibilities is important to sustaining our success as a leading national firm, and in improving our understanding of the local markets and communities we work in.

For our firm, success in CSR is being responsible, as well as profitable; taking a responsible approach to climate change and minimising our impact on the environment; being a good employer; and ensuring that we are attracting and retaining people from the widest possible pool of talent. For us, sustainability is also about investing in the future by helping to improve the skills and aspirations of young people; working with our community partners to help identify and meet the needs of the communities where we work and the issues that are pertinent to us; and making a valuable contribution to promoting human rights and improving access to justice for people in need.

We define our social responsibility into four key areas:

- Marketplace – responsibility to our clients, candidates, suppliers and partners as a leading recruitment and consulting company
- Workplace – commitment to what we regard as our most valuable resource: our employees
- Environment – doing all we can to reduce our impact on the environment.
- Community – ensuring that each of our offices is an active partner in the communities in which they operate, acting with integrity and inspiring trust

We are committed to building a culture where our employees, clients and suppliers recognise our commitment to ensuring that our branches operate successfully in their communities and that we achieve our goal as a company of long-term sustainable success.

Corporate Social Responsibility is discussed within all management review meetings. The meeting covers all areas of the business including operations, purchasing, finance, human resources and sales and marketing. The management team is tasked with upholding our duty of care to the environment and our communities.

Reducing Energy consumption

Low energy lighting, low energy IT hardware and associated devices.

Carbon Footprint

UNIVERSAL GROUP is currently in the process of calculating our carbon footprint. We hope that this will set a benchmark for us as a company to track our continual improvement processes, and our intention to become a carbon neutral company.

Water

Society often overlooks that water is a scarce resource, but we actively strive and encourage our team-members to conserve water usage throughout our business.

Waste Management

Waste streams are segregated at all offices and paper and cardboard are recycled. We continue to work with suppliers to reduce excess packaging and increase the use of recycled cardboard

Responsible purchasing

We ensure that all our suppliers are aware of our environmental goals and have their own environmental policies in place. Wherever practical, we purchase products made from renewable and ethically sound sources. UNIVERSAL GROUP recognises that people are paramount to environmental success and all employees are encouraged to be environmentally responsible through regular training, instruction and awareness raising activities, our environmental policy is also available on our internal intranet site. This policy is regularly monitored by the management team and updated to reflect new initiatives and processes that can further drive the reduction of our impact on the environment both locally and on a national level.
